Dear Friends of the Reeds Mill Church

Some of you are old friends and some, we hope, will become new friends of the Reeds Mill Church. And we want to make sure you know we're getting close to the time of year when the "Little WHITE Church in the Vale" will be opening its doors again for Sunday afternoon worship services. Summer is nearly here, and the lovely sounds of the pump organ playing everyone's favorite hymns will be heard drifting through the open windows of this wonderful, old chapel.

As in the past, worship begins promptly at 2:00 PM every Sunday starting July 4, 2004 and continuing through August 29. We have wonderful speakers who are anxious to preach, and that's only 9 times we can get together to sing God's praises and hear His word preached in this peaceful setting. Please join us each and every time. And bring your family, neighbors, and friends – all are welcome to these non-denominational services.

And don't forget the annual Old Home Picnic at noon on August 29, two Hymn Sings, Sunday, July 18 and Sunday, September 12 at 7:00pm (BRING YOUR FLASHLIGHT!), and the annual Thanksgiving service on Thursday, November 25 at 10:00am.

See you in church!
